(5) The rights listed in clauses (1) 1)-3) and 6)-11) and subsection (2) of this section extend to officials specified in subsection 10 (2) of this Act.

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

§ 13. Maintenance of business secrets

The competent officials of a consumer protection authority and representatives of consumer associations and federations of consumers are required to maintain business secrets which have become known to them in the course of performing duties related to consumer protection.

§ 14. Consumer's right to protection

(1) In order to protect their rights, consumers have recourse to the city governments or rural municipality governments, the Consumer Protection Board or courts whether directly or through consumer associations, and participate in the hearing of their applications or complaints.

(26.06.96 entered into force 26.07.96 - RT I 1996, 49, 953)

(2) Unless otherwise provided by law, applications and complaints submitted by consumers shall be settled within one month.

Chapter III¹

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

Trading on Basis of Trade Licence

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

§ 14¹. General principles

(1) In the cases prescribed by an Act or by legislation established by the Government of the Republic regulating trading, a person shall hold a trade licence for trading at a certain place of business.

(2) A trade licence must also be held if trading on the basis of a selling permit is organised on the market or in the street.

(3) A trade licence need not be held for trading in motor vehicles, on board watercraft or aircraft used for international carriage of passengers.

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

§ 14². Place of business

(1) A place of business is a place of sale which may include:

- 1) production facilities, storage spaces and other premises;
- 2) places of sale located outdoors in the immediate vicinity of the enterprise in a separate area, for the seasonal expansion of the activities of the enterprise.

(2) Regardless of the number of places of sale, the following are deemed to be one place of business:

- 1) the places of business of the same trader at a specific public event;
- 2) a mobile shop (a motor vehicle for the retail sale of goods travelling on the commercial services route which is formed from places of sale located in the territory of one or several rural municipalities or cities);
- 3) the whole legally defined area where the same trader engages in peddling;
- 4) the whole legally defined area where a person organises trading on the basis of selling permits.

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

§ 14³. Issuer of trade licence

(1) A rural municipality or city government of the place of business of a trader or a city administrative agency or another structural unit of the city government as authorised by the city government shall issue, amend or revoke a trade licence by its administrative act on the basis of and pursuant to the procedure provided by law.

(2) A rural municipality or city government of the location of a trader or a city administrative agency or another structural unit of the city government as authorised by the city government shall issue, amend or revoke a trade licence for trading in motor vehicles, on board watercraft or aircraft used to provide passengers services or in restaurant cars of passenger trains or in mobile shops by its administrative act on the basis of and pursuant to the procedure provided by law.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, an administrative act is an order of a rural municipality or city government. Upon grant of authority specified in subsections (1) and (2) of this section to an administrative agency or another structural unit of a city government, the city administrative agency or another structural unit of the city government has the right to issue orders.

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

§ 14⁴. Documents submitted for issue of trade licence and duration of processing

(1) For the issue of a trade licence, a corresponding application and, in the cases prescribed by law, other documents shall be submitted. Before submission of an application, the applicant shall pay a state fee.

(2) An application for issue of a trade licence shall set out at least the following:

- 1) the name of the applicant;
- 2) the registry code of the applicant and the name of the corresponding register;
- 3) the address and details of the applicant;
- 4) the clearly expressed content of the application;
- 5) the description and name (if there is any) of the enterprise and the address of the place of business or the information specified in subsection 14⁵ (3) of this section;
- 6) the desired time of trading (week days and time or the word “ööpäevaringself” [twenty-four hours a day]);
- 7) goods or services trading in which is desired or organisation of trading in which is desired;
- 8) the number of a decision of approval of an enterprise or part thereof within the meaning of the Food Act (RT I 1999, 30, 415; 2002, 13, 81; 79; 61, 375; 63, 387), the date of making the decision and the name of the agency which made the decision, if the enterprise must be approved;
- 9) a reference to the ownership of the place of business (whether the place is owned or leased, and the commercial lessee shall also set out the name of the commercial lessor and the term of the commercial lease contract);
- 10) the number of the permit for the use of a structure where the place of business is located, the date of issue of the permit for use and the purpose set out in the permit for use, which must be in accordance with the activity planned at the corresponding place of business, if the place of business is located in the structure;
- 11) the date of submission of the application, and signature;
- 12) the name, official title and details of the person who signed the application.

(3) An applicant shall be liable for the correctness of data submitted for the issue of a trade licence.

(4) A trade licence shall be issued or a decision on refusal to issue a trade licence shall be made within ten working days after receipt of an application for issue of the trade licence.

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

§ 14⁵. Issue of trade licence

(1) In order to decide the issue of a trade licence, more specific information concerning the written or oral information submitted upon application for the issue of a trade licence may be requested from an applicant and from state agencies or local government agencies, and the correctness of the submitted information may be verified, including at the place of business.

(2) The following shall be entered on a trade licence:

- 1) the word “kauplemisluba” [trade licence];
- 2) the name of the issuer of the trade licence;
- 3) the date of issue and the term of the trade licence or the word “tähtajatult” [for an unspecified term];
- 4) the number of the trade licence;
- 5) the name of the holder of the trade licence;
- 6) the registry code of the holder of the trade licence and the name of the corresponding register;
- 7) the address of the holder of the trade licence;
- 8) the description and name (if there is any) of the enterprise and the address of the place of business or the information specified in subsection (3) of this section;
- 9) the permitted time of trading;
- 10) goods or services trading in which is permitted or organisation of trading in which is permitted;
- 11) the name, official title and signature of the competent official of the issuer of the trade licence and the seal of the issuer;
- 12) other information in the cases prescribed by legislation.

(3) If a person wishes to trade at a public event, the name and location of the public event and the number of places of sale of the trader shall be indicated on the trade licence instead of the address of the place of business. If a person wishes to trade in a mobile shop, on board watercraft or aircraft used to provide passenger services or in the restaurant car of a passenger train, the mark identifying the said vehicle and, in the case of a mobile shop, the location of places of sale shall be indicated on the trade licence instead of the address of the place of business. If a person wishes to engage in peddling, the area where the trader may engage in peddling shall be indicated on the trade licence instead of the address of the place of business.

(4) A trade licence for trading at a public event shall be issued with the written consent of the organiser of the public event. Upon issue of a trade licence for trading in a mobile shop, if the places of sale are located in the territory of another local government, such places of sale shall be entered on the trade licence if the rural municipality or city government of the location of the places of sale has granted its written consent therefor.

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

§ 14⁶. Refusal to issue trade licence

(1) Issue of a trade licence shall be refused:

- 1) upon failure to submit an application in accordance with the requirements or upon failure to pay the state fee;

- 2) upon failure to grant written consent provided for in subsection 14⁵ (4) of this Act if grant thereof is prescribed;
- 3) upon submission of false information;
- 4) if goods or services, the place of business or the conditions thereof, the form of sale or anything else related to the planned activity is clearly contrary to the provisions of legislation;
- 5) if operation at the place of business or during the time of trading indicated in the application and trading in goods or services indicated in the application may justifiably damage the interests of the persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the place of business;
- 6) if the previous trade licence of an applicant which was issued for trading at the same place of business is revoked on the bases provided for in subsection 14⁹ (2) of this Act and less than six months has passed after the entry into force of the corresponding decision;
- 7) in other cases prescribed by legislation.

(2) A copy of an administrative act issued concerning a refusal to issue a trade licence shall be sent to the person who submitted the corresponding application not later than on the working day following the date of making the relevant decision.

(3) A refusal to issue a trade licence does not deprive the applicant of the right to apply for a trade licence again.

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

§ 14⁷. Validity of trade licence

(1) A trade licence shall be issued for an unspecified term.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section do not apply if:

1) a trade licence is issued for trading at a public event, in which case the term of the trade licence shall not exceed the duration of the public event;

2) a trade licence is issued for seasonal trading, in which case the term of the trade licence shall not exceed one season;

3) a trade licence is issued for trading on an area leased for a specified term, in which case the term of the trade licence shall be the same as the term of the commercial lease contract.

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

§ 14⁸. Amendment of trade licence

(1) On the basis of a request of the holder of a trade licence, the issuer of the trade licence shall amend the trade licence in connection with changes in the data entered on the trade licence. The above-mentioned does not apply to cases where the location of the place of business changes and, therefore, issue of a new trade licence shall be applied for. The issuer of a trade licence may refuse to satisfy, completely or in part, an application for amendment of the trade licence on the bases provided by legislation. A trade licence shall be amended or a decision on refusal to amend a trade licence shall be made within ten working days after receipt of an application for amendment of the trade licence. A copy of an administrative act issued concerning refusal to amend a trade licence shall be sent to the holder of the trade licence not later than on the working day following the date of making the relevant decision. Refusal to amend a trade licence does not deprive the holder of the trade licence of the right to apply for amendment of the trade licence again.

(2) The issuer of a trade licence shall amend the trade licence if, arising from legislation or a court judgment or ruling which has entered into force, the bases for restriction of the scope of the trade licence exist. An amended trade licence shall be valid as of the due date indicated in the administrative act issued concerning the amendment of the trade licence. A copy of the administrative act issued concerning amendment of the trade licence and the amended trade licence shall be sent to the holder of the trade licence not later than on the working day following the date of making the relevant decision.

(3) No state fee is charged for amendment of a trade licence.

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

§ 14⁹. Revocation of trade licence

(1) The issuer of a trade licence shall revoke the licence if:

1) so requested by the holder of the trade licence;

2) the basis for revocation of the trade licence arises from a court judgment or ruling which has entered into force.

(2) The issuer of a trade licence may revoke the licence if:

1) inaccurate information was submitted upon application for the trade licence;

2) tax laws are materially or repeatedly violated with regard to trading or organisation of trading at the given place of business;

3) the requirements for trading or the requirements for the organisation of trading are materially or repeatedly violated;

4) the goods or services which are traded may only be traded upon existence of a corresponding notation on the trade licence and the corresponding right has not been granted or has been revoked;

5) the holder of the trade licence has not operated at the place of business indicated on the trade licence for 45 or more consecutive days, except if the issuer of the trade licence has been informed of the temporary suspension of trading for more than 45 days in writing;

6) in other cases prescribed by legislation.

(3) Revocation of a trade licence on the bases provided for in clauses (2) 1)-3) of this section is not applied if, arising from the provisions of subsection 14¹⁰ (1) of this Act, it is sufficient to revoke the right to trade in certain goods or services.

(4) Revocation of a trade licence enters into force on the due date indicated in the administrative act issued concerning the matter.

(5) A copy of an administrative act which revokes a trade licence shall be promptly sent to a person with regard to whose right the decision is made.

(27.03.2002 entered into force 01.06.2002 - RT I 2002, 35, 214)

§ 14¹⁰. Notation on trade licence which grants right to trade in certain goods or services or prohibits trading in certain goods or services

(1) Law may establish that trading in certain goods or services shall be permitted only if there is a corresponding notation on the trade licence and at the same time law may provide the bases for suspension or revocation of the corresponding right.

(2) Law may establish that a corresponding notation concerning prohibition on trading in certain goods or services shall be made on a trade licence.

Compensation for Damage and Prohibition on Trade in Certain Goods

(19.06.2002 entered into force 01.09.2002 - RT I 2002, 63, 387)

§ 20. (Repealed - 05.06.2002 entered into force 01.07.2002 - RT I 2002, 53, 336)

§ 20¹. Prohibition on trade in certain goods

(1) If a misdemeanour report is prepared concerning a misdemeanour provided for in subsection 18¹⁰ (2) of this Act and, in the course of the proceedings, it is established that the subject of the trade were counterfeit goods, the body conducting the extra-judicial proceedings may submit a reasoned request to the issuer of the trade licence to prohibit, until the entry into force of the decision made in the matter, the legal person holding the trade licence from trading in goods falling within the heading of the Estonian Nomenclature of Commodities (hereinafter ENC) which covers the counterfeit goods that were the subject of the trade. A copy of the misdemeanour report shall be annexed to the request.

(2) The issuer of a trade licence may revoke the trade licence of a legal person on the basis of a request specified in subsection (1) of this section and issue a new trade licence setting out a prohibition on trade in goods falling within the heading of the ENC which covers the counterfeit goods that were the subject of trade.

(3) If proceedings in an administrative matter specified in subsection 18¹⁰ (2) of this Act are terminated with respect to a legal person, the body conducting the proceedings shall send a copy of the decision on termination of the proceedings immediately to the issuer of the trade licence.

(4) In the case provided for in subsection (3) of this section, the trade licence with a prohibition shall be revoked and a trade licence without a prohibition shall be issued to the legal person.

(5) A legal person regarding whose punishment a decision has entered into force pursuant to subsection 18¹⁰ (2) of this Act is prohibited from trading in goods falling within the heading of the ENC which covers the counterfeit goods which were the direct object of the misdemeanour. The prohibition applies, regardless of where the misdemeanour was committed, for three years as of the date of entry into force of the decision.

(6) The body conducting the proceedings shall send a copy of a decision specified in subsection (5) of this section immediately to the issuer of the trade licence.

(7) The issuer of a trade licence shall revoke the trade licence of a legal person on the basis provided for in subsection (5) of this section and shall issue a new trade licence with a term of up to three years, indicating a prohibition on trade in goods falling within the heading of the ENC which covers the counterfeit goods that were the direct object of the misdemeanour on the licence.

(8) If a legal person is punished pursuant to subsection 18¹⁰ (2) of this Act for a second time and the corresponding decision has entered into force and information concerning the previous punishment pursuant to subsection 18¹⁰ (2) has not been deleted from the punishment register in accordance with the Punishment Register Act (RT I 1997, 87, 1467; 1998, 111, 1830; 2001, 93, 565; 2002, 32, 189; 56, 350), the issuer of the trade licence may revoke the trade licence and refuse to issue a new trade licence to the legal person for up to three years as of the date of revocation of the trade licence.

(9) Damage caused by a prohibition on trade shall be compensated for on the bases and pursuant to the procedure provided by law.
